This News has no lot nor parcel in the Republican campaign now on in this district for the nomination for Circuit Judge. It has stood on top of the hill where the air is clear and looked over the field, the result of which may mean much for this district. Two men are aspiring for this honorable position and the weighty responsibility of a Circuit Judge. Neither are men of our choice, neither all take with our political party, but viewing this matter entirely from the standpoint of a citizen who desires the welfare of our district, the dignity of the office preserved, we call the attention of the voters of that organization to weigh well the qualifications of the aspirants before depositing their ballots. Prejudice against any man, or set of men, should not outweigh the fitness of a man for such weighty duties incumbent upon a Circuit Judge. This country seems to be aware of the situation and all active workers are in the saddle. Democrats are not taking any part in this fight, but as good citizens, they desire qualified men, not only in their party, but in the opposite. They may have a man to offer for Circuit Judge, unknown to us, but if they do they will offer one thoroughly qualified in every particular. The Republicans ought, at least, to do as much for the district, if within their power, as Democrats would be willing to do. The race closes next Saturday, and the result will be known by our next issue.

Gov. J. C. W. Beckham has commissioned Mr. H. K. Walker, of Glenfords justice of the peace, to fill out the unexpired term of the late W. C. Loy, in Magisterial district No. 8. "Squire" Walker has executed bond and taken the oath of office required by law. As to Governor Beckham's right to issue this commission we refer to a case that went to the Court of Appeals from Nelson county during Gov. Bradley's term of office. Mr. Walker was a warm friend of "Squire" Loy, and this commission, coming as it does, is quite a compliment. The friends of Mr. Walker believe that he will make an efficient officer.

Great interest is now manifested by the Republican party in this judicial district. They have settled only on one thing and that is they are going to have a Miller or a Baker. A Miller is one who grinds—mashes. A Baker is a man who does up the Miller's product.

THE SELF-SELECTED ELECT.

(From the Courier-Journal.)

There is no good citizen of Kentucky who will not endorse that portion of the Republican platform which demands the Raising of Law and denouncing murder.

The case in point giving occasion and emphasis to this particular expression—the horrid example in both the Republican mind and category—is Breathitt county. It lacks the force of sincerity. It lacks the force of verisimilitude. It would come with better grace from men with clean hands. Obviously, the purpose is to make the Marcum assassination serve as an offset to the Goebel assassination; but, before this can happen, Jett and White must be acquitted, and the Democratic party must not only bend all its energies and resources to that end but individual Democrats must go around getting up private subscriptions to defend them. None of these things has come to pass. Until they do the scheme of the Republicans, meant for a makeshift, will prove a boomerang. When they do, the Courier-Journal will lead the procession of protest, of censure, of loud and deep damnation.

This Republican "platform" is flippant about "Democratic party" hate and proscription following the destruction, under forms of law of political liberty and equality, and it is "especially deplores the fact that in this day of machine domination, the courts of the State are appealed to, and have become too often the theater for the display of Democratic partisan activity and for the upholding of political wrong and outrage." Waiving all thought of Sapp and Todd and the machine that got Col. Belknap his nomination, a gentleman up a tree—nay, on the dead level—would fancy this an excerpt from one of Mr. Bryan's old anti-government-by-injunction, cranks, with the term Democratic inserted in the place of the term Republican. But when, immediately following it, the same gentleman comes upon the following, he is disposed to exclaim "what are you giving us?" We quote:

"Fourth—We denounce assassination and lawlessness, whether in Serbia or Kentucky, as destructive of civilization and call upon the enlightened intelligence of the State, through its legislative, executive and judicial agencies, to employ remedies to re-establish order."

Amen and amen and amen! So say we all. But, who brought the Mountain man to Frankfort? Who at the point of the bayonet dispersed the people's legislature? Who killed Goebel? Which party has stood like a stone wall—between the authors of these crimes during nearly four years of immunity, making them heroes and martyrs the while? "Whether in Serbia, or Kentucky," says the house carpenter who built this wretched filigree of cant and falsehood. Why Serbia? What has Serbia to do with it? The one, the only time in its history when Kentucky looked like Serbia—when Frankfort might be compared with Belgrade—was when Taylor, not content with his partisan militia, filled the State Capitol with murderers and marauders, caused an unarmed man whose sole offense was that he dared be a claimant to the Governorship to be shot down in cold blood from the Executive Office, occupied by himself and his friends, immediately thereafter surrounding this Executive Office with his armed janitaries, refusing access to the officers of the law, and until finally dislodged by the Supreme authority of the United States, holding his ground and maintaining the conspiracy to kill, to usurp, and to retain possession by force in total disregard of peace and order and law.

Why does not the Republican platform refer to these things? In view of its own record of crimes actual, how can the Republican party—with any pretenses, or hope of impressing the public and the voters—undertake to manufacture a spurious case against the Democrats in advance of any act, or event to support it? Since murder is murder, agree that the murder of Marcum was as bad as the murder of Goebel. Admit that the murderer of Marcum—if he had any politics—was a Democrat, that Breathitt county is a Democratic stronghold, that the men behind the assassin are Democrats—and, what have we? The whole Democratic press of the State is in the pursuit. Every Democratic State authority actively committed to the prosecution. The certainty that Jett and White, against whom no stronger evidence lies than against Taylor, Howard and Powers—will be hanged before election day.

No other answer needs to be made the Republican case of Democratic hate and lawlessness contained in the absurd platform of a Convention dominated by the Sapp machine and the Belknap barrel. The expectation of the managers of the campaign thus inaugurated is to hold the State through Democratic disaffection. Whilst Sapp, Todd & Company work the negro vote in the cities and towns for all that it is worth, Belknap money supplying the sinews of war and poured out like water to corrupt the election, as it was poured out to corrupt the Convention. Yet these hot gospellers of machine-made liberty and law—these architects of chaos and ruin—these condoners if not abettors of conspiracy and murder—have the effrontery to talk of Democratic hate and to set themselves as exemplars of civic righteousness.

We hear that the Campbellsville city council has taken up the matter of the Interurban railway, and has appointed a committee to confer with the Columbia Interurban Company. We are glad to note this, for we have felt all along that it would be greatly to the interest of that city for the line to go there, no matter where else it may go.

We learn that the survey for the interurban line is likely to go over Merriam and the Ellis gap. This is the best point in the route, as it is the most level, and the line will be the shortest and the most direct.

While on route to the old folk's singing at Zion last Sunday, the horse which Leslie Tupman was driving became frightened, and the motion of Mrs. Ellen Holaday, and started in full speed. Mr. Tupman was accompanied by two young ladies, all three being drenched. One of the young ladies received a severe cut about the head, and the buggy was considerably damaged.

The Old Folks singing at Zion last Sunday drew hundreds of people, and the day was very much enjoyed. A most beautiful dinner was spread, showing conclusively that the people of this neighborhood are not only a willing people, but also a generous one.

Several of the class were absent, but new members entered, hence there was no lack of music with the "old time" ring, a melody that did the hearts good. It is believed that the class will be at Columbia the fifth Sunday in August.

Mr. R. S. Goode, a former citizen of Adair county, writes as follows from Clarksville, Oklahoma: "I received your letter of the 10th inst. and was glad to hear from you. Please credit same and let the News know. Send us a little line if you have any to spare as we are getting very scarce here. We have good, averaging from 15 to 25 bushels per acre. The prospect for corn is fine here for the dry weather struck us, but our hopes have been raised. Wheat threshing is now in progress. You can see a threshing, it matters not in what direction you look. I counted eighteen to day, at a place where there is a distance of four miles. At present the thermometer is standing at 105 in the shade."

Last Friday, the 24th, was the 55th anniversary of the marriage of Mr. J. B. Simmons and his estimable wife, both of whom still enjoy reasonable health. Their home is near Breeding, this county, where they have lived for many years. Few married people are permitted to celebrate so many anniversaries and but few pass their seventieth year of life without tottering on the cane. Mr. Simmons, however, seems an exception as he is a man of much vigor and energy in the clearness and activity of mind as in his youthful days. Mr. and Mrs. Simmons and wife deserve a complimentary notice in the News for their long and useful lives. We welcome them to the work and extend our congratulations and likewise our sympathy for the very work is honorable, but the pastures are not so rich as the Valley of the Nile.

There is a gentleman who lives just outside the corporate limits of this town, on the Greenburg road, who owns a small farm, but a good one, and whose attention to agriculture and the improvement of his landed estate is carried on without bluster, is worthy of mention. We speak of Mr. M. L. Mitchell, well-known here for his fine estate and other parts of the State. Mr. Mitchell built his small farm in 1902, but has made many valuable improvements up to date. He has a good barn and dressed his meadow until it yields, like river bottom. He has given his orchard the attention it deserves and is now enjoying the fruits of his labor. On last Friday Mr. Mitchell brought a basket full of golden sweet apples, some of which were of the "Golden Wonder" variety. The apples were of the best quality and tender and of course we accepted and tendered our thanks. Mr. Mitchell is demonstrating what can be done where energy and good judgment are applied, and is certainly deserving of the fact that a small estate will keep him more profitable and more enjoyable than large ones neglected.

DEATH OF MR. D. A. TAYLOR.

Last Friday night about the hour of ten o'clock, after a long illness, succumbed by his wife and children, a well-known and a number of friends, the subject of this notice peacefully went to his God. He was a victim of a complication of diseases and suffered much before the end came. He was a devoted Christian gentleman, an affectionate husband and father, a kind and sympathetic neighbor. The people of the Montpelier neighborhood, where he so long resided, will greatly mourn him, and his immediate family has suffered an irreparable loss. The deceased was a brother of Dr. J. F. Taylor, Glasgow, Dr. Z. G. Taylor, Knob Knob, and Dr. S. A. Taylor, Gradyville. The surviving family are the News extends its deepest sympathy.

DEATH OF COL. J. A. MORRISON.

The news of the passing of this well-known gentleman reached Columbia last Friday morning. The end came at his late residence in Jamestown and he was not under the expectation, as he had been critically ill for two weeks. He was sixty-nine years old last June, and was a man for whom every body had the utmost respect. He served his country as a soldier in the Federal army first, and afterward was made Colonel of the 15th Kentucky Cavalry. He was a brave and courageous and loved by his men. He was an upright citizen and was loved and respected in Columbia and was a member of the Legislature. He was a zealous Mason and was buried with Masonic honors at Jamestown last Saturday, a large number of relatives and friends being present. He will be greatly missed by the people of Russell and adjoining counties, and to all the News extends sympathy.

J. A. MORRISON, DECEASED.

Mrs. Bettie Goode, who removed from Columbia with her children a number of years ago, died in Indianapolis last Friday morning. She was fifty-eight years old and the cause of her death was pulmonary trouble brought on by grip. Deceased was a daughter of the late W. N. Robinson. She was born and reared in Columbia and was well known to all. Upon receiving the intelligence of this death Mrs. Lou Miller, sister of the deceased, left immediately for Indianapolis. Mrs. Goode was a member of the Christian Church, and besides her surviving children she leaves a number of relatives in this county. A brother, W. B. Robinson, lives in the South; a sister, Mrs. Alice Giddens, in the west, and Mrs. Laura Callison, another sister, at Middleboro, this state, and Mr. Arthur and Lee Robinson, this place, all of whom this community is in sympathy.

OLD EXPRESSIONS.

The following were handed to us by Judge H. M. Rorer and were culled from a number of old time sayings contained in collection of periodicals dating back 100 years ago. Some of these however, will sound familiar to Kentuckians of a later period.

Salutation: "Light and look at your saddle."

I came to borrow your candle moids. Go to Scroggie's store and buy ten yards of maiseen—he throws in thread and buttons. (all of the old time Kentuckians will remember Scroggie's store. It was located in Mercer county, near Harrodsburg, and was supposed to have been in the center of the State and was the only store of note for miles around. This was in the 30's.)

Don't forget the horses, judges and madder. I want to dry the hills.

Come by the carling sharrow and get the milk.

The salt gourd is sitting upon the soap barrel.

Make a charger and tie it upon the powder horn and get a box of lead and run bullets in the 120 moids, and be sure and use a patch, and don't break the ram rod. Clean her with fow. Use split G. Da—they are the best.—Middleboro Record.

SELF-SACRIFICING INDIVIDUAL.

The Chicago Inter-Ocean that has never been known to be particularly friendly to democrats, says: "Having received the highest honor that men can confer upon their fellow man, and neither hoping nor desiring more, Grover Cleveland must still continue to do what he can for his country and his party, asking no reward for himself, but simply doing what he can for them. He must do this, and he does do it, not because he is an office-seeker, but because he is a good party man, a good citizen, and a patriot." It is interesting to be told by the republican paper that Mr. Cleveland asks no reward for himself, but is lying awake nights because of a desire to do what he can for his party. According to this republican paper, Mr. Cleveland is a "good party man." There are a great many democrats who like to object to republican papers like the Inter-Ocean designating for them a "good party man." If Mr. Cleveland had been a good party man, he would not have caused his administration to stand sponsor for the abuses which the financiers sought to place upon the people; and if he had been a "good party man" he would not have deserted the party simply because it had taken a position that was not agreeable to Wall Street.

SPECIAL TERM AT JACKSON.

A special term of circuit court opened at Jackson Monday the 20th inst. The Louisville Times has the following on the instructions to the grand jury:

Judge Redwine's charge to the grand jury has the ring of sincerity. It leaves no possible excuse for failure on the ground that the situation was not clearly understood and places the responsibility where it belongs.

Breathitt, ex. Judge (indignities), is part of the Commonwealth of Kentucky. What is law in Louisville and the Blue Grass is to be made law in Breathitt.

Individual interpretation of the code is no longer to be permitted and the assassin or incendiary is to be treated with the same severity that characterizes his prosecution and punishment in the most law-abiding communities of the State. It is time that the lines should be drawn clearly.

In charging the grand jury Judge Redwine says rightly: "The presumption of innocence will prevail in the minds of many people until you, by your acts, rid yourselves of it. If, in any way, you fall short of your duty and any one of you has a friend to protect or an enemy to punish, you will not gain anything for yourselves, but will only injure Breathitt county. You need have no fear, for the strong arm of the Commonwealth is to be used to protect you. You are a part now of the Commonwealth's great system of the government and will be given all of the power that is allowed you by the Statutes." If the investigation is entered upon in this spirit there can be no fear of results.

There's Mike Shanley! Look at him and behold a democrat! His star for the moment disappears behind the clouds. But only for a moment. It will have no fear, shining brighter than ever. It is impossible to down a good man, and here is one of the best.—Editorial in Courier-Journal.

"Berea Bill" Beckner's speech before the republican State convention eclipsed even Bill Owen's cowardly reference to the dead Gobel! It was of Berea Bill that the Senator Beck once remarked that he had seen thirty pictures of Judas Iscariot, and no two of them looked alike; but every one of them looked like Bill Beckner.—Glasgow Times.

Old Joe Cannon, speaker of the next house of representatives, announces that he will not block currency legislation in the coming session. But what does Wall Street say? If that gambling institution wants currency legislation it will get it; if it doesn't want it, it will not have it. The probabilities are, however, that your uncle Joseph has already felt the Wall Street pulse.

The Chicago Record-Herald complains that the Washington postoffice has been run to a large extent on the spoils principle. Later developments indicate that other branches of the postoffice department have been run on the spoils system; and yet what did the Record-Herald expect when it gave its support to Mark Hanna and the greatest political machine that has ever been organized in the history of this country? Did the Record-Herald lay the flattery upon it to its soul that the administration of public office by that machine would be in line with public interests? Did not that paper have every reason to believe that when it gave its support to Hanna's machine it helped to establish the system and pave the way for the evils which it now complains.—The Commonwealth.

The fact that there were over forty deaths from the use of toy pistols in the hands of children on the fourth of July, suggests the thought that either the toy pistols, or the children, or the fourth of July, ought to be abolished. On second thought, the notion to abolish should not include the children; the faithful manner in which the toy pistol is discharging its duty and itself renders this superfluous.

No premium will be given for needle work and kitchen products this year, but ladies will be advised free will to first day. Remember that the first day will have good shows.

Brutally Tortured.

A case came to light that for persistent and unrelenting torture has perhaps never been equaled. Joe Gorblick of Colusa, Calif., writes, "For 15 years I endured insufferable pain from rheumatism and nothing relieved me though I tried everything known. I came across electric bitters and it's the greatest medicine on earth for that trouble. A few bottles of it completely relieved and cured me." Just as good for liver and kidney troubles and general debility. Only 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed by druggist.

The western papers are referring to him as Senator J. Bat-Burton. Such is fame and the ingratitude of republicans.

Married in Death's Shadow.

It often happens that a couple is united in marriage when one is afflicted with consumption or a deep-seated cough or cold. There's danger in this; it is marrying in the shadow of death. Immediate steps should be taken to expel the trouble. There's nothing will so quickly remove the danger as Dr. King's new discovery for consumption, coughs and colds. It's equally safe and sure for lung and throat troubles. Cure is guaranteed by druggists. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

GRAND ARMY REPUBLIC.

Will follow the flag to their National Convention, San Francisco, in August. Will you join the procession? A glorious trip for a little money. Special through service via WABASH. Ask your ticket agent or write the undersigned about the trip, and for reservation in standard or tourist sleeper. F. W. GREENE, D. P. A. Wabash R. R., 228 4th Ave. Louisville, K.

By the by, what's the matter of Littlefield, of Mata, for Teddy's running mate? Wasn't it not that saved the country from the trust.

Indians will be mighty doubtful to the g. o. p. In 1901 if the emigrant colored brother is not lured back in due season.

Possibly Senator Hanna has never reflected that Mr. Roosevelt is the only man of presidential size left in the republican party.

Since that 90-mile dash on a buckskin broncho, we can readily comprehend how easy it was for Lieutenant General Nelson A. Miles to capture Porto Rico.

We trust the betty Shatter, of half-forgotten Santiago de Cuba days memory, does not have to be carried to the Spanish war veterans reunion on a cot.
